

Statement as to why no Job Impact Statement is Necessary

A Job Impact Statement is not required because the proposal will not have any impact on jobs or employment opportunities. The proposal provides the option for telehealth visits in some circumstances.