Why do we need Paid Family Leave?

Why do we need Paid Family Leave?

1. Employees struggle to choose between maintaining a job and caring for loved ones
2. Employees face the stress of weeks of lost wages
3. Employees fear losing their jobs

New York leads the nation

In April 2016, New York State enacted the nation's strongest and most comprehensive Paid Family Leave policy into law

- Paid Family Leave is employee-funded insurance that helps workers be there for their family when they're most needed
- Workers no longer have to choose between caring for their loved ones and their jobs

Paid Family Leave basics

Paid Family Leave is insurance fully funded by employees
It provides paid time off and job protection for employees to:

Bond with a new child

Care for a family member with a serious health condition

Assist loved ones when a family member is deployed abroad

Paid Family Leave & COVID-19

Care for yourself or your minor dependent child when under an order of quarantine or isolation due to COVID-19

Your rights and protections

Paid time off and:

- Job protection
- Continued health insurance while on leave, on the same terms as if you had continued to work
- Protection from discrimination and retaliation for requesting or taking Paid Family Leave

A close-up photograph of a man with glasses and a mustache kissing a baby on the forehead. The image is overlaid with a semi-transparent teal circle on the left side, which contains the title text. The overall image has a teal tint.

Basic uses of Paid Family Leave

Bonding with a child

Provides time for both parents to bond with a child within the first 12 months of:

Birth

Adoption

Foster Care

Caring for a family member with a serious health condition

Qualifying family members include:

- Spouse
- Domestic partner
- Child/stepchild
- Sibling
- Parent/stepparent
- Parent-in-law
- Grandparent
- Grandchild

These family members can live outside of New York State and even outside the U.S.

Caring for a family member with a serious health condition

A serious health condition is defined as an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental health condition requiring either:

- Inpatient care; or
- Continuing treatment or supervision by a health care provider

A COVID-19 diagnosis may be considered a serious health condition

Caring for a family member with a serious health condition

Examples of conditions that may qualify as serious health conditions:

- Your mother is receiving chemotherapy and needs emotional support
- Your spouse/domestic partner is recuperating from surgery
- Your child is undergoing treatment for addiction

Caring for a family member with a serious health condition

Examples of health conditions not considered serious under Paid Family Leave:

- common cold/flu
- routine dental, orthodontia
- cosmetic treatment

Assisting during a military deployment

For assistance when a family member is deployed abroad on active military service. Events may include:

- Short notice military deployment
- Military events; related activities
- Service member's rest and recuperation
- Counseling
- Post-deployment activities
- Making financial/legal arrangements
- Childcare arrangements for military member's child
