

Statement in Lieu of a Regulatory Flexibility Analysis .

The rule should not impose any adverse economic impact or reporting, recordkeeping or other compliance requirements on small businesses or local governments. The emergency adoption and proposal provides billing guidance when treatment is provided by a physical therapy or occupational therapy assistant as allowed (but not required) under the recent amendment to Workers' Compensation Law section 13-b.